

SUTTON A SUICIDE

Lieutenant Utley Bears Out
Story of Other Officers

HE MAKES SOME DENIALS

Didn't Find Revolver—Didn't Tell Sentry
to Keep Quiet—Case Resumed at Annapolis Yesterday.

Annapolis, Aug. 6.—Lieut. Harold H. Sutton of the marine corps was a witness yesterday before the court of inquiry that is taking testimony regarding the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton at the marine barracks here on the night of Oct. 12, 1907. Lieut. Utley was one of the officers present when Sutton met his death, and the hearing had been adjourned to await his arrival in Annapolis. His story was, in a general way, a corroboration of what the other officers had told. He said that Sutton shot himself after someone had cried out "Roelker is dead," or "Roelker has been shot."

Lieut. Utley told of the events leading up to Sutton's death, and described minutely and graphically the fight Sutton had with Lieut. Osterman. Sutton had proposed to fight Lieut. Adams, but got into the row with Osterman instead.

The lieutenant made two positive contradictions of previous testimony. He denied that he picked up a revolver after it had been thrown away by Sergeant Dehart and he denied that he had told Kennedy, the sentry, to keep quiet about what he saw.

KILLS AND IS KILLED.

Robber Holds Up Bank and Gun Fight Follows.

White Bear, Minn., Aug. 6.—Following a bold and partially successful attempt at robbery of the First State bank of this village, Henry Paul, the robber, and Fred Larkins, one of the pursuing citizens, were shot and killed yesterday, and William Butler of the posse was shot through the abdomen and is said to be dying. One other man received a wound in the thigh and still another was shot through the wrist.

The robber, who had been employed as a laborer on some building work at White Bear, for three days, received his pay, a check for $6, yesterday morning, and went to the bank to get it cashed. Cashier Alfred Auger was the only man in the bank. When Auger looked up he gazed into the barrel of a six-shooter and was told to hand out all the cash in the bank. Auger passed out all the currency in the office, amounting to $730.

The robber fled down through the streets of the village, half the population of the village, armed with revolvers and rifles, in hot pursuit.

Seeing that the posse was gaining, the robber opened fire. Larkins, who was leading the pursuers, dropped dead with a bullet in his heart, but a moment later the robber fell, shot through the abdomen.

GAMBLERS MENACE BASE BALL AT HUB

The Licenses of the Boston Clubs Are Held Up by the Authorities.

Boston, Aug. 6.—Upon their promise that they will co-operate with the police in putting a stop to gambling in their respective parks, the American league and the National league base ball teams will be allowed to continue to play the national game in this city. The necessary licenses, which expired on July 31, have not yet been renewed by Mayor Hibbard, but it is understood they are being held up only to give the club managers a chance to show their intention to make good the word they gave the police authorities to aid actively in the suppression of gaming.

Police opposition to the licenses, made on the initiative of Capt. John J. Hanley of the Hibernia crossing station, has been withdrawn as a result of his receiving assurances from both sides. Owing to the demand of the Roxbury court that the transfer of money be proved in order to effect a conviction for gambling, the police have been unable to wipe out betting on the base ball playing.

Capt. Hanley says that he has no doubt that the licenses will be renewed, and both Treasurer Hugh McBrean of the Americans and Secretary Peter F. Kelley of the Nationals express like confidence. Secretary Kelley said the club would assuredly carry out the anti-gambling ideas of the late George Dwyer. The Americans had signs warning against gambling put up on their ground Wednesday.

Base Ball Notes.

Reulbach, the old Intercity star, won his twelfth consecutive victory Wednesday against Boston. He is certainly tying with the goods.

Ty Cobb is crawling up on Eddie Collins' position at the top of the batting list. He gained heavily since his stay in Boston.

Worcester has signed "Bill" Sline who helped them win the pennant in 1907 and 1908.

George Moriarty, the Tigers third baseman, has been unusually weak at the bat in the last series with Boston.

About 5,500 people attended the games at Huntington avenue the two double-header days.

Chicago pulled up a game on the Pirates Wednesday and the Smoky City boys will have to hustle if they keep their lead.

Gossard of Boston has been playing a fine game the past few days. In Wednesday's game with Detroit he got four singles out of four times at the bat.

It looks like Lynn in the New England league.

Capt. A. C. Anson, the veteran base ball captain, who is now the owner of a semi-professional ball team in Chicago, plans to fit up his park for night baseball and to commence playing about the last of the month.

The Cincinnati National club purchased a new pitcher Wednesday, Samuel Smith of the Montreal club.

Eddie Karger, the Red Sox recent investment, seems to be there with the goods all right.

Johnson pitched a great game for Washington Wednesday in the first game with Cleveland. He allowed only four hits and struck out eight men.

There was no one disappointed at the Italian Athletic-Williamstown game Wednesday except the Williamstown delegation and they had a right to be.

Gabelloni pitched a good game as did his opponent Olson in Wednesday's game at Berlin-street grounds.

FAMINE FACED BY STOCKHOLM

Food Supply of the City is Practically Exhausted

PRICES ARE PROHIBITIVE

Strikers Living on Fish—Camp Out in the Open on Shores of Lake Malar and Spend Their Time in Angling.

Stockholm, Aug. 6.—Stockholm yesterday suffered seriously from a shortage of food, which so far is the most notable result of the labor conflict that reached its acute stages the beginning of this week. Those who from lack of foresight or for other reasons failed to lay in a supply before the strike began are the worst sufferers.

The stock of bread is already practically exhausted, and meat is scarce, and expensive. The restaurants have raised their prices for meals and the figures are prohibitive, except for persons possessed of ample means.

The strikers themselves are living practically on fish. Thousands of them are camping out. Some are in tents, but many are without shelter on the shores of Lake Malar and the islands of the archipelago, where they spend their time in angling.

The authorities have taken charge of the milk supply of the city, and soldiers are distributing milk in limited quantities and supervising the sale from milk cans at the railroad stations. The deliveries of ice have ceased. This is especially trying, as the weather is unusually hot.

Paupers from the state poorhouses have been enlisted to replace the striking grave diggers and undertakers, and instead of hearse, stretchers are being used to carry corpses through the streets to the cemeteries. The funerals proceed under military escort.

The employees of the gas works and the electric light plants have gone out on strike, and as a result military guards have been placed over the establishments. The authorities contend that this protection is necessary, and assert that Wednesday night they frustrated an attempt to blow up the works with dynamite. A gunboat has been stationed opposite the gasworks, and no boats are allowed to pass between it and the shore.

A battalion of grenadiers from Linköping and a detachment of 250 men from the Västergötland regiment have been ordered into Stockholm.

At Gothenburg work at all the slaughter houses has come to an end, and the general strike committee has called upon the railroad men and the printers to join the movement.

The ranks of the strikers are being augmented hour by hour, and according to the leaders of the movement, their total now reaches 300,000, about one-twentieth of the population of the country.

RECORD GRAIN HARVEST BEGUN.

More Wheat and Corn in the North-west This Year Than Ever Before.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—The northwest has raised a great crop of grain this year. Harvest is at hand and the cutting of grain is general in Minnesota and South Dakota, and is crowding into North Dakota. The record will be broken as to wheat and corn, and probably oats and flax, while barley will hold its own, and may prove to be a record crop also.

It will require $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 to purchase these crops at present prices. No other statement is necessary to emphasize the prosperity that has come once more to the people of the northwest.

"We are ready to move the crop," said President L. W. Hill of the Great North-west. "I doubt if the people realize as yet the enormous amount of produce they will have to sell. We have placed in our silos all grain stations in the northwest 12,000,000 bushels, and at one loading we can take out 14,000,000 bushels of wheat. Were we sure the terminals would handle the cars promptly, we could guarantee a movement from country houses as fast as the farmers want the grain moved."

"The Northern Pacific is ready to move the crop promptly," said President Elliot. "Crops of all kinds are large."

"We have a big grain crop," said L. F. Day, vice-president of the Minneapolis and St. Louis. "Not for seven years have the grain fields done so well along our line in southern Minnesota."

SPINE AFFECTED.

Bob Burdette Must Wear a Plaster Cast.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 6.—Robert J. Burdette, who is seriously ill because of an injury to the spine sustained in a fall last March, was placed in a plaster cast yesterday. His spinal cord has become affected.

Canada's Brilliant Crop Outlook.

Calgary, Aug. 6.—The Canadian Pacific railway has received from its scores of agents in Alberta one of the most optimistic crop reports in the history of the province. From all sections come statements of ideal weather, ripening grain, and an absence of pests, blight or damage of any kind. Moreover, are being rushed almost night and day with a view to having grain all out and stacked before grain-cutting begins a few days hence.

A Woman Humiliated Would Not Attend Social Functions Because of Her Hair.

There are many women in this world, handsome in features, perfect in form, graceful of movement and brilliant of mind, who keep in the background just because they have thin, colorless and lusterless hair.

In Paris they understand things about the hair that we do not know in this country. It was a Parisian, Dr. Sabouraud, who discovered that thin hair and dandruff are caused by a microbe.

It is Parisian Sage that proves Dr. Sabouraud's theory to be correct, for it is rigidly guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy to kill the dandruff germ and cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is a delightful, pleasant hair dressing and invigorator. It is not sticky or greasy. It should be used freely in summer as it keeps the scalp clean and cool and free from odors.

The price for Parisian Sage is only 50 cents for a large, generous bottle and is for sale by leading druggists everywhere. Sold in Barre on the money-back plan by the Red Cross Pharmacy. The girl with the auburn hair is on every package. Made in America by Givoux Mfg. Co., Buffalo.

Stark came from Rutland, Vt. two weeks ago and secured work in a building on Gorham street. He was last seen Tuesday of last week. $500,000 FOR SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Fund Planned By The Knights of Columbus.

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 6.—The $500,000 endowment fund for scholarships was endorsed by the convention of the Knights of the Knights of Columbus yesterday and it was decided that the amount be collected within two years and surrendered to the university. The members of the national board of directors will hereafter be required to attend all national conventions. An attempt was made by the officers and members of the board of directors present to elect the latter with power to vote in convention, but it was lost by an overwhelming vote. Another change affecting the membership of the directory gives them power to call a meeting at any time and place they deem practicable because of the rapidity with which the order is spreading. The convention will end tonight.

THE EMPEROR RECEIVES

Sails for Kiel on the Imperial Yacht—Farewell Messages Received from the King and the Queen.

Covos, Aug. 6.—Emperor Nicholas concluded his visit to King Edward yesterday afternoon and left for Kiel on board the imperial yacht Standart, escorted by Russian and British cruisers. The emperor had a busy meeting of board the Standart. He received four deputations, including the lord mayor and the corporation of London and various chambers of commerce and was presented with addresses in gold caskets.

In reply his majesty expressed his delight with his stay in British waters, and spoke of the importance of developing the political and commercial friendship between Great Britain and Russia as a guarantee of the general peace. The emperor also evidenced his interest in the Russian Douma by thanking the members of the reception committee.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra bade farewell to Emperor Nicholas and the members of his party on board the Standart, where they were entertained at luncheon. They then returned to the British royal yacht, the Victoria and Albert, which accompanied the Standart for some distance outside the roadstead.

FOREST FIRES DRENCHED.

Fire Fighters on the Cape Relieved by the Rain and Return Home.

Falmouth, Mass., Aug. 6.—A heavy shower which came down upon Cape Cod yesterday extinguished every spark left of the fire which has caused much damage to the timber lands and anxiety in the towns of Bourne and Falmouth, since last Friday.

The fire was practically under control Wednesday. That evening light showers began to fall and the tired fire fighters—some five hundred strong—went home, satisfied that more rain was to follow.

The men had been asleep only a few hours when it began to pour, drenching every patch of fire, every blazing pile and every smoldering stump.

The fire did not reach Falmouth until Monday noon. All day Friday, Saturday and Sunday, it had eaten its way across the town of Bourne, burning good wood, land and threatening every minute to destroy a village or two which happened to be in its way. Back fires were set continually. These fires hampered the progress of the headfire, but the firemen realized, as they worked, that their only hope lay in a shower.

FREE HIDES TO AID TRADE.

A Great Increase in Shoe Exports Is Predicted.

Washington, Aug. 6.—"Free hides will mean a tremendous growth of our shoe manufacturing business, and I will make the prediction that within a few years our export trade in shoes will increase from its present mark of $11,000,000 a year to at least $80,000,000," declared A. H. Lockwood of Chicago, editor of Hide & Leather, and an authority on tanning and shoe manufacturing. "This wonderful growth in the shoe business, which I forecast," he continued, "will be of great economic value to the country. At present the tanneries and shoe manufacturing plants are closed down two or three months in each year, owing to the scarcity of hides. With the Argentine hides coming to this market, as they will, it will mean that the plants will keep running continuously, and that the number of men engaged in these industries will be increased. At present there are more than a quarter of a million wage-earners in the shoe manufacturing business alone."

To say that the movement for free hides was a New England idea is altogether wrong. St. Louis is the greatest shoe manufacturing city in the country. Cincinnati and Columbus, O., have interests that rank very high. Pennsylvania is the greatest tanning state. Pennsylvania, too, has more cattle than Wyoming. This last statement may seem odd color, but it can be readily verified by census reports and state agricultural statistics. The shoe industry of the country is leaving New England for the middle West, Illinois is coming to the front as a tanning state. Wisconsin, in this connection, should not be overlooked, having tanning industries that run into millions of dollars."
